urbanest Westminster Bridge

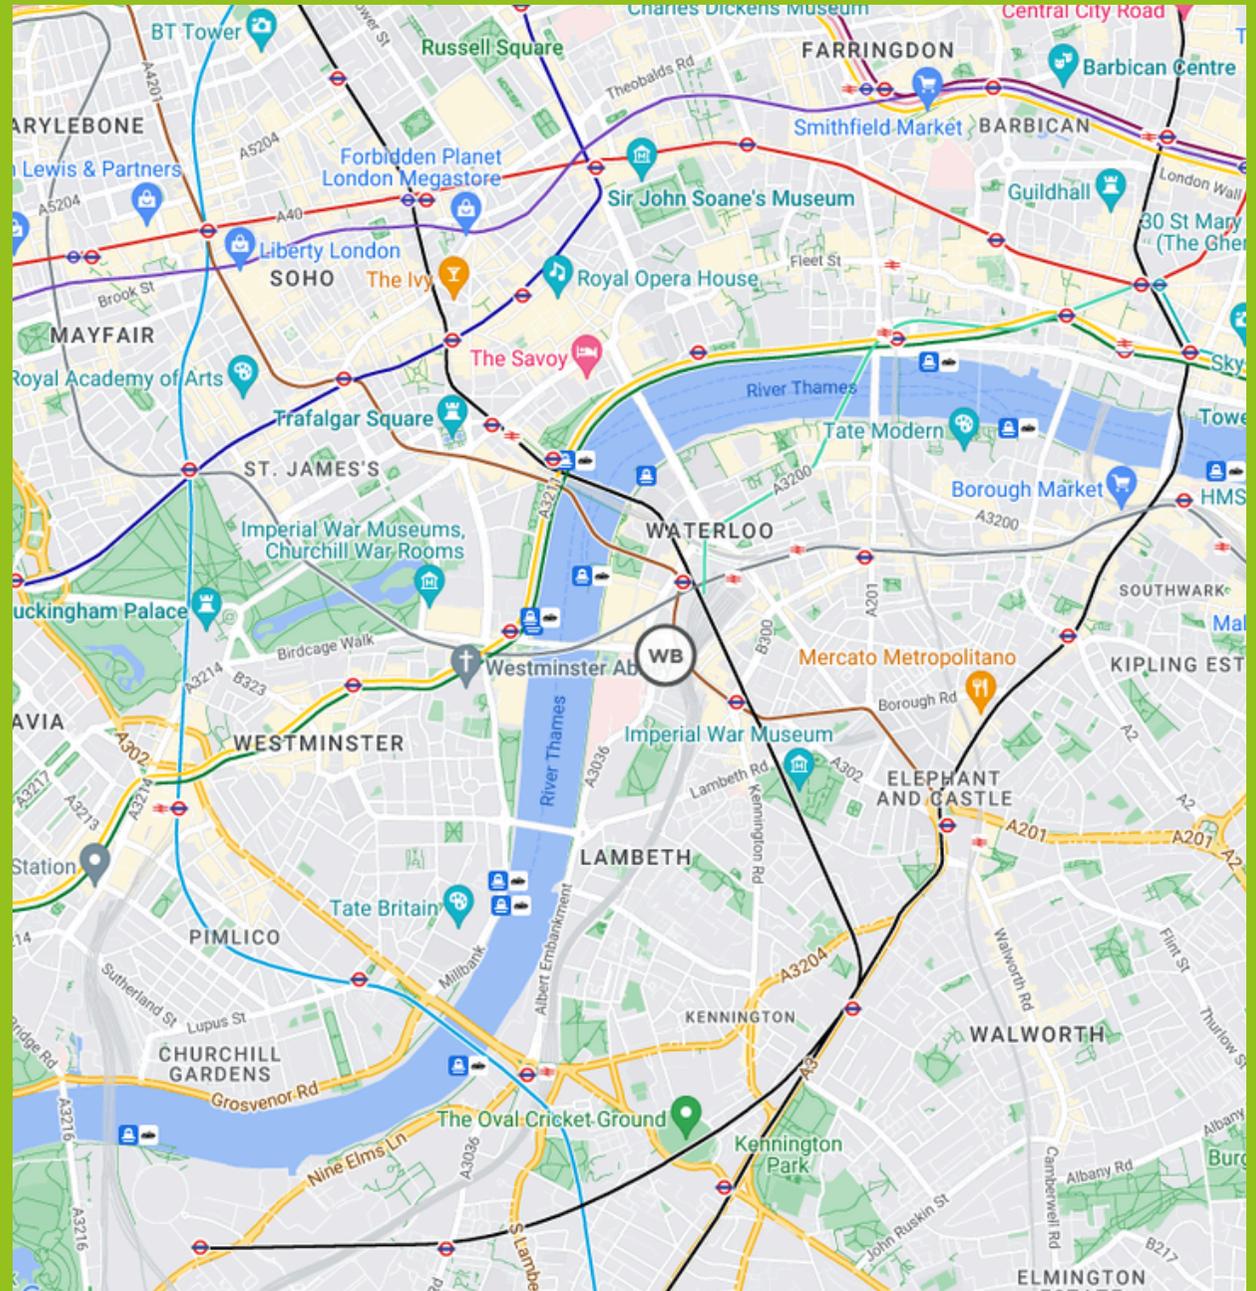

urbanest Westminster Bridge has set a new standard for student life in London. Situated on the banks of the Thames directly overlooking Westminster Bridge, urbanest Westminster student accommodation offers spectacular views of many of London's iconic buildings such as The Shard, Big Ben and Westminster Abbey. Innovative and varied room options and facilities ensure that our accommodation provides some of the best living in London for students. Many of London's top universities are easily accessible. Its incredible central location means that some of London's best bars, clubs, restaurants and transport hubs are just a short walk away. There is an onsite gym, and exercise rooms on the lower ground floor. The gym has been designed to facilitate exercise programmes using the latest, state-of-the-art Cybex treadmills, cross trainers, and upright and recumbent bikes. We also have free weights and a relaxation area, as well as sound-proofed gaming booths.

Transport Links

urbanest Westminster Bridge could not be better connected. The London Underground stations at Lambeth North and Westminster are just a few minutes walk away. So too is London Waterloo (which also includes Waterloo East), one of the city's busiest transport hubs, giving access to the entire rail network of South East England. Vauxhall mainline station, underground and bus stations are also just a 15-minute walk along the river.

Distance To Universities

Located on London's thriving South Bank, urbanest Westminster Bridge is close to many of the capital's top universities and colleges, so no matter your choice of uni, rest assured you and your accommodation won't be far away.

For those attending London South Bank University (LSB), our Westminster property is perfectly suited as it's conveniently located within optimum walking distance of the main campus.

King's College London (KCL), an urbanest-partnered university, and the London School of Economics (LSE) are also both within walking distance. Slightly further afield, yet still easy to access by bus or a few stops on the tube, are University College London (UCL) and the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS).

Check you've selected the right university for you by checking out our guide to university specialisms, then trust urbanest to find London student accommodation that's local to you and perfect for your needs.

Room Specs

All of our super comfortable beds have a high-quality memory foam mattress to give you a great night's sleep, and every room has under-floor heating, which is controlled by an individual thermostat in your room to keep you warm in the winter months. Super-fast broadband keeps you connected, and the entire building (including all study and social areas) benefits from free WiFi.

In addition, the rooms are extremely well appointed in general with every student benefiting from a spacious, fitted study desk, plenty of storage for clothes, shoes and books and, depending on the room you choose, either a private or a shared kitchen with first-class appliances.

Our innovative twin rooms offer a great value option for living in central London with a noise-reducing sliding screen to ensure you can enjoy your privacy when you want it.

Our private and en-suite rooms are lockable and comfortable but have the advantage of being located within a communal apartment for 3, 6, 7, 9, 10 or even eleven people – perfect for making friends or sharing with a group of friends you have already.
